BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT

The June term of Bourbon Circuit Court will convene on Monday morning, June 20, for a two-weeks' session, with Judge Robert L. Stout presiding. The docket is made up of the following: Commonwealth cases, 37; equity appearances, 63; ordinary appearances, 33; old equity appearances, 316; old ordinary appearances, 80.

The Commonwealth docket will be considerably increased after the convening of Court, as there are eighteen examining trials awaiting action by the Grand Jury. This promises to be a very busy term of Court, with ninety-six appearances in addition to the old cases.

INJUNCTION SUIT AGAINST PARIS WATER CO.

The injunction suit filed against the Paris Water Co. to prevent local consumers from getting their water cut off and alleging that the new schedule of rates is excessive, is expected to come before the Bourbon Circuit Court during the June term, which starts June 20. A large number of the consumers paid their water rents for the present quarter to the Deposit Bank as trustee of the water collections made by the Commercial Club. Injunction suits were filed by the Commercial Club for something like 500 consumers who are uniting in the fight against the water company's new schedule.

"COMMUNITY NIGHT" FOR PARIS

To-night (Tuesday) will be Community Night in Paris, when a big public meeting will be held at the court house, to be preceded, in all probability, by a band concert on the court house steps. Following the concert, which will start at 7:30 o'clock, a meeting will be held in the Circuit Court room, to be addressed by John H. Shuff, of Cincinnati, O. Previous to Mr. Shuff's address a musical program will be presented under the direction of Prof. A. L. Boatright, including solos and community singing. Special song sheets have been ordered for the occasion, and the community singing is expected to be one of the most enjoyable features of the meeting.

Mr. Shuff, who is one of the leading figures in community development work in this section of the country, is a highly interesting lecturer, and will emphasize in his address the need of parks and playgrounds development in Paris. Judge Dundon, a member of the Community Service committee, will be chairman of the meeting. The meeting is free and open to the general public and a large attendance is expected.
